

10/26 Workout (Group B) - All

Monday, 10/26/2020

This week will mark the start of working towards our official sets rather than working on getting back into swimming. The warm up should start to look familiar and you should feel ready to go by the end of it. The first set today is trying to make those 100s from last week seem easier! If you have time, the second set works on some speed and more technique work. + the 125s should be all at the same pace, even if it is slow!
 + Try to hold your speed between the 25s and 50s!
